DEGREE® MEN: IT WON'T LET YOU DOWN

The sweat and odor specialists at Degree have been hard at work sniffing, swabbing and probing hundreds and hundreds of men's armpits. The result? An innovative, body-responsive formula which releases extra protection when it's needed most so men can take those risks in life that make it worth living ...introducing Degree Men.

Research shows that every man has different demands when it comes to underarm protection. For some men, odor protection and great fragrances are their top priorities. That's why Degree Deodorant helps eliminate odor before it starts and offers an outstanding selection of mind-blowing fragrances that men want. Antiperspirant users require maximum wetness and odor control, which is why Degree Invisible Solid Antiperspirant offers revolutionary technology designed specifically to protect against men's stress-related odor and sweat.

Men can feel confident about their underarm protection – whether they are enjoying a friendly neighborhood game or simply watching their favorite soccer team from the stands – because Degree Men offers the strongest wetness and odor protection you can get. Trust us...along with the hundreds of men who tested the Degree....Degree Men won't let you down.
